

Who is Mrs. Linck?

Amy Linck grew up in Traverse City and graduated from Traverse City Central High School in 2000. She attended Central Michigan University and graduated with a Bachelors of Science degree in secondary education with majors in Spanish and English as well as an endorsement in Journalism. During college Mrs. Linck studied abroad in Spain, did an internship in the Dominican Republic, and traveled to the Dominican Republic for several service trips. After college, Mrs. Linck and her husband moved to the Dominican Republic to volunteer with the non-profit organization- Orphanage Outreach. For two years she worked and lived at an orphanage while serving as the director of an English Institute and leading volunteer college and high school groups.

Mrs. Linck moved back to Northern Michigan in 2008 and immediately began her teaching career at Suttons Bay Public Schools. She teaches all middle and high school Spanish classes as well as the Publications class, which creates the yearbook. She is currently completing a Masters degree in High School Counseling through Western Michigan University. Mrs. Linck loves to travel and has led two Suttons Bay student service trips to the Dominican Republic, with plans to lead many more in future years. In her spare time she loves to travel, volunteer, cook, spend time outdoors and spend time with her husband and twin daughters.

